The intent of the meeting was to begin a review of all local laws for the Town of Yorkshire

The meeting began with Clerk Clark reviewing the index/directory created designed to facilitate the discussion.

Copies of all Local Laws were also made available.

The Town Board then continued to review the directory and said laws, upon which after review there were 7

Local laws that the Board requested Clerk Clark send to Attorney for review, for various reasons. There were also 2 Local laws related to water that were requested to have Water Commissioner Larry Groves review. Clerk Clark will provide these to Commissioner Groves.

Lastly, as part of the review, it was also requested that Dog Control Officer David Cummings be provided Article 7 of the NYS Ag & Market Law to review, specifically enumeration requirements.

With no further business, on a Motion of Coun George, seconded by Coun Hewitt, the meeting was adjourned at 8:30 pm. Carried unanimously.
